

Fowke launched new trail camera

The new trail camera that Fowke launched is E9, which has a cool appearance, and some customers said it looked like Optimus Prime. This one has the trigger time of 0.4s and the video recording resolution of 1080P/30fps. Which made it could start to record quite rapid and record video more fluently.